

Data Protection Policy - DIMVA 2023

The German Informatics Society (GI) will treat participant' data with confidentiality and only as permitted under prevailing legal norms on data protection.

The information provided by participants (full name, delivery and invoice address, email, and depending on payment method, also bank account, credit card number and expiration date) will be retained by the German Informatics Society for the purpose of the organisation and realisation of the convention.

The legal basis for the processing of personal data is the participation contract pursuant to Art. 6 para 1 lit. b) GDPR.

The annual convention DIMVA 2023 is taking place as an in-person event. At the event a photographer might take pictures of the sessions, coffee breaks and thus the people present. The photographic and visual material resulting from the event will be used in publications of the organizer.

The legal basis is our legitimate interest in accordance with Art. 6 par. 1 lit. f) GDPR.

With the exception of the processing by the video conference tools, we will not transfer your data onto third parties.

You will find further information regarding your rights and data protection in Data Protection Policy of the German Informatics Society.

In the case of any questions please feel free to contact us (mathias.fischer@uni-hamburg.de).

Hamburg, April 2023